

'LEARNING FROM LEGENDARY COACHES'

The Lecture Series:

SIR CLIVE WOODWARD (England Rugby Union Coach)
delivered by David Turner

Wednesday 17th February 2010
University of Hertfordshire | 7pm

Clive Woodward is a former English rugby union international who was the coach of the England national rugby union team from 1997 to 2004 taking them to World Cup glory at the 2003 Rugby World Cup in Australia. As the architect of England's greatest sporting achievement since the 1966 World Cup victory, Clive's visionary approach to 'winning' captured the imagination of the sporting world.

“There is no fear in losing,
there is fear in failing to prepare properly”

COST: Individual Sessions £10 |

(Attendance at these sessions will be FREE for members of the Herts Coaches' Association, the Herts FA Coaches' Association and University of Hertfordshire Sports Studies students)

For further details and booking form please contact:

E: sharon.gill@hertfordshirefa.com T: 01462 650208 for members of the Herts FA Coaches' Assoc.

E: info@sportinherts.org.uk T: 01707 284229 for all other bookings

